Yes - I agree with the Administrator's take on this. I think it's okay to proceed with this as a listening meeting.

Hi Scott,

Are you OK with us proceeding with the sportsman's meeting as discussed in the email traffic below?

Thanks,

Stephanie

+ Fulton

I am comfortable meeting with them provided we work with OGC to ensure that they know we have made no decision and can listen to their concerns only. (As an aside, I have met with the CEO of Anglo, the mining company, so I think hearing from other interested group is fine if the same rules are ineffect). Also, any concerns they have with respect to the draft assessment when it is put out need to be submitted during the public comment period. Thanks, Lisa

Administrator -- next Monday, you are slated to meet with a large group of conservation and other groups who are in town for events on Bristol Bay. At the meeting, they will present their plans for advocating a 404c and supporting the EPA assessment.

Given the timing, I wanted to be sure you're comfortable with this meeting. What do you think?

Good morning, Bob!

Attached is the draft run of show and a list of those who are planning to attend. In the Event plan, you will see the topics of discussion.

Liz - we are still working the run of show, so please allow me the opportunity to send you a more detailed event plan once we have confirmed. But, the list of attendees can be sent to security.

Best,

Dru

Stephanie/Drew -- it looks like there's a meeting on Monday between the administrator and several conservation/sportsmen groups. Do you guys know what the agenda will be? I'm curious whether the groups will cover Bristol Bay/Pebble Mine and, if so, how big a part of the meeting it will be. Any thoughts?
